

National Junior Honor Society

On Friday, February 18, Millennium Charter Academy inducted seventeen students into the National Junior Honor Society. Membership into this near-century-old, prestigious, international organization is both an honor and responsibility rooted in “outstanding scholarship, character, leadership, service, and citizenship.” The Academy requires its candidates to: maintain a cumulative GPA of at least 3.75 in grades 6-8; be outstandingly principled; lead others into and through service; set the example of how one ought to act. These seventeen young people have proven themselves time and time again in their continuous pursuit of excellence.

Millennium Charter Academy would like to thank the parents, siblings, friends, and teachers of these distinguished young people. A significant reason that each of them was honored is because of the love, support, guidance, influence, and input provided by those closest to them. Not only was this ceremony a celebration of the accomplishments of the students, but it was also a recognition of the impact that positive, caring, meaningful relationships have on the success and ability of children to flourish and reach their greatest potential. This event reminded us of all that education is not merely the training of a child but the formation of a human being.

Top left- Kaebyn Lovill, Colton Krakenburg, Truett Harrison, Ada Wilson, Haley Cregger, Kyndal Martin, Sam King, Jay Hoerter, Andrew Edwards, Front left- Paisley Chilton, Love Galyean, Morgan Shipley, Remi Devore, Adelynn Southern, Anne Rachel Shepherd, Hope Haymore, Maddie Shough, Samantha Cooke

Mock Trial Competition

This month, Millennium Charter Academy’s Mock Trial team competed at the North Carolina Mock Trial's High Point Regional competition. With the leadership of team captains Tristan Shockley and Natalie Cockerham, the team won second place overall in the region. Isaac Shipley and Cheyenne Rogers won Best Witness Awards, and Natalie Cockerham won a Best Attorney award. This is a highly competitive event, judged by practicing attorneys and judges, where student teams litigate civil and criminal cases crafted by members of the North Carolina Advocates for Justice (NCAJ).

Left to right- Caleb Edwards, Benjamin Hiatt, Cheyenne Rogers, Palak Patal, Isaac Shipley, Tristan Shockley, Addisen Key, Evan Key, Natalie Cockerham, Savannah Allen

The Lion's Roar

Millennium Charter Academy Events Worth Roaring About

February 2022

Published by the MCA Office of Development

Recognitions for Winter Sports

Seniors

This month, we celebrated Senior Night for our winter sports athletes. Tristan Shockley and Evan Key completed their basketball season, while Hartley DeVore and Calvin DeVore completed their indoor track season. Congratulations to these wonderful seniors and their parents. We have cherished our time with these students and are excited to see them embark on their new adventures—college, careers, life, and all great things await.

Pictured with their parents left to right: Tristan Shockley, Evan Key, Hartley Devore, and Calvin Devore

Eighth Graders

Each year, we celebrate our eighth graders. Soon to begin the journey into rhetoric school, the athletic department presented parents and athletes with gifts and flowers, celebrating the accomplishments of our fabulous 8th graders.

Cheerleaders pictured left to right: Taylor Pike, Anna Peterson, Alyssa Mitchem, McKinley Gwyn, Haley Cregger, Arely Bueno

Basketball pictured left to right- Bayden Holladay, Kadin McBride, Sam King, Tyler Handy, Finley Baird, Dallas Ashburn