

Senior Recognition

Senior athletes were recently recognized for their participation and excellence in MCA Fall athletics.

Calvin and Hartley DeVore are the twin sons of Drue and Amy DeVore and the grandsons of Tim and Ellen DeVore and John and Kathy Joyce. Calvin and Hartley have attended MCA since kindergarten. Both have been members of the National Honor Society since their junior year, and throughout their high school years, they have maintained a 4.0+ grade point average while being members of the cross country, baseball, and track teams. They are very active in Young Life, and both volunteer weekly at Surry Medical Ministries. Hartley is an accomplished pianist and has competed annually in the Federation of Music Clubs Piano competition held at the NC School of the Arts. Calvin has served in MCA's student government since his freshman year and currently serves as vice president. Calvin and Hartley both plan to attend a four-year college. Hartley wants to go to medical school to become a pediatric oncologist, and Calvin plans to either get his MBA or go to law school.

Sophia Gomez is the daughter of Jennifer Gomez-Baker and Derek Baker. She is the granddaughter of Vinceinze and James Coadney. Sophia has attended MCA since ninth grade. Throughout her high school career, she has maintained a 4.0+ grade point average. Sophia has played soccer, softball, and has been a member of the track team since her junior year. At MCA she is a member of the Student Life Council, the Governing Council, HOSA, and she served as a junior marshal at last year's commencement exercise. Sophia is very involved in her church youth group at Bethany Baptist Church where she participates in weekly outreach and service projects. Upon graduation, Sophia plans to attend college in North Carolina, possibly at NC State or UNC-Greensboro to study the sciences and then go to medical school or veterinary school.

Senior Recognition

Madison Marshall is the daughter of Greg and Tammy Marshall and the granddaughter of Norma Hunter and the late Billy Marshall and Jimmy and Sandy Hall. Madison has attended MCA since kindergarten. She began playing volleyball during her 8th grade year and she says that she has loved every minute of it, working hard to learn everything that would help her team and make her coaches proud. She has served on the Athletic Council the last four years. Although she will miss playing sports for MCA and wishes she had one more year, she is looking forward to her future. Upon graduation Madison plans to attend Surry Community College to seek a degree in Early Childhood Education.

Fall Sports Achievements

Congratulations goes out to freshman cross country runner Ruby Hoerter for her fourth-place finish in the Northwest Piedmont 1A Cross Country Championship. With her finish Ruby achieved Northwest Piedmont 1A all-conference in cross country! Ruby and the varsity boy's cross-country team will compete in the NCHSAA Midwest 1A Cross Country Championship on October 30, in Kernersville.

Congratulations to the varsity volleyball team for being the first sports team to qualify for the NCHSAA State Playoffs and for having the best season in school history.

A very special thank you to Andrea Jarrell Photography, LLC, for supplying these outstanding photos.
