THE LION'S WATCH

Bridging the Childcare Gap Between School and Home

In keeping with the philosophy of Millennium Charter Academy, students and parents participating in Lion's Watch are expected to uphold the same high ideals as exemplified in the Expectations, Habits, and Honor Codes.

As a student in the Lion's Watch, I will

embody the EXPECTATIONS of:

Respectfulness, Honesty, Compassion, Responsibility, and Courageousness

demonstrate the HABITS of:

Obedience, Courtesy, Truthfulness, Integrity, Service, Awareness, Thinking, Excellence, Perseverance, and Leading

And, as a student in the Lion's Watch, I will uphold the honor Code

As an individual with endowed worth and value, I will honor others with the same respect that I am due. I will uphold the high ideals of this program with integrity by being trustworthy, responsible, and loving.

HONOR CODE (parent)

As a parent of a child participating in Lion's Watch, I understand the program's high expectations of moral character, and I agree:

- ✓ To uphold and adhere to the program's established values, policies, procedures, and expectations
- ✓ To hold my child to the Honor Code of the Lion's Watch at and away from school
- ✓ To foster in my child, as will the Lion's Watch, the Expectations of respect, honesty, compassion, responsibility, and courage, supported by the Habits of obedience, courtesy, truthfulness, integrity, service, awareness, thinking, excellence, perseverance, and leading
- ✓ To partner with the program in its efforts to assist me in my responsibility to educate and rear my child
- ✓ To ensure that my child wears clothing within the limits of the established dress code
- ✓ To provide transportation to and from the Lion's Watch in a timely manner
